

Coach your business to success using this “interactive” approach from two of today’s most forward-thinking leadership gurus

Imagine your workplace filled with curious, creative, committed employees. People who take initiative, who are fearless decision makers, who “own” their work. With the right coaching system in place, this dream will soon become reality.

With The Extraordinary Coach, leadership guru Jack Zenger and coaching expert Kathleen Stinnett deliver an entire toolbox for coaching your organization to success.

While other such books simply tell you how to coach, The Extraordinary Coach uses companion videos (at zengerfolkman.com), worksheets, checklists, sample questions, and the latest research findings to provide a full-immersion course on becoming the kind of coach that brings dramatic changes to an organization.

When you coach individuals to success, you lead your entire organization to success. This “interactive” package is exactly what you need to master one of today’s most critical business leadership skills.

Jack Zenger is the cofounder of the executive education firm Zenger | Folkman. Coauthor of the bestselling book The Extraordinary Leader and The Inspiring Leader, he was inducted into the Human Resources Development Hall of Fame in 1994 and received the Thought Leader Award from his industry colleagues in 2005. Zenger resides in Midway, UT.

Kathleen Stinnett is a senior consultant and executive coach with Zenger | Folkman. She serves on the faculty of the Hudson Institute of Santa Barbara, leading foundational workshops required for the professional certification program. In 2005, Stinnett earned the Master Certified Coach credential (MCC) through the International Coaching Federation. She resides in Santa Barbara, CA.
